| Description and how to apply |
|--|
| 4-5 Gray's Inn Square invites applications for a Third Six pupil with an interest in and particular focus on Social Housing, Landlord & Tenant and Property to start this year and preferably immediately. The successful candidate will also have an opportunity to develop in our wider practice areas, such as Local Government and Public Law, and can expect a busy practice, regularly appearing in the County Court, Tribunals and the High Court as well as providing written advice, defences, particulars of claim etc. They will be assigned a mentor who will support them during their third six pupillage. After successful completion of their third six it is our intention that the candidate will be offered the opportunity to apply for tenancy. 4-5 Gray's Inn Square is highly regarded for its 'strength and depth of knowledge in social housing law', with a team of practitioners considered as 'leaders in their field when it comes to homelessness law'. The clerks are 'highly efficient, knowledgeable, approachable and fair'. Chambers is committed to equality and diversity, for further information please visit www.4-5.co.uk/about-us/equality-diversity. To apply, please send a covering letter and CV to clerks@4-5.co.uk. Your cover letter should address current practice and ambitions for the future. Applications will be treated as confidential and marked against our Third Six Recruitment Policy. |
