Description and how to apply
Doughty Street Barristers are routinely involved in some of the most innovative and high-profile cases within personal injury and clinical negligence litigation. Examples include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The leading cases concerning duty of care in tort: CN v Poole, Robinson v Chief Constable of West Yorkshire, Michael v Chief Constable of South Wales.• Major group action product liability claims: Primodos litigation, Pinnacle and ASR metal-on-metal hip litigation, PIP breast implant litigation etc.• The leading cases on illegality in tort: Henderson v Dorset Healthcare University NHS Foundation Trust, Traylor v Kent and Medway NHS Social Care Partnership.

- Leading cases on quantum: Indexation litigation (Thompstone v Thameside), Heil v Rankin.
- Leading cases in industrial disease: Royal Opera House v Goldscheider, Baker v Quantum, Field v British Coal, Furniss v Firth Brown Tools Limited.
- The final UK reference to the European Court of Justice: Tattersall v Basquille.
- Damages claims arising out of high profile incidents, including:
 - The Hillsborough disaster.
 - The Grenfell Tower fire.
 - The shooting of Mark Duggan.
 - The shooting of Jean Charles de Menezes.
 - The practice of extraordinary rendition.

The team is looking to recruit a junior tenant (or third-six pupil), in the call range 0-5 years, to strengthen the team and to ensure that the considerable volume of work coming into Chambers can be covered.

Applicants should intend to practice predominantly in Clinical Negligence/Personal Injury but may also intend to practice in other complementary areas including Actions Against the Police and Public Authorities, Inquests and Public Inquiries, Clinical Regulatory work, and Court of Protection and Mental Health work.

For an informal discussion, please contact Callum Stebbing, the practice manager for the team, who will be happy to put you in contact with team members.
