Description and how to apply

Wilberforce Chambers is inviting applications for a funded third six pupillage with a view to a tenancy, to start in or before October 2023.

Pupils can expect:

- a well-structured pupillage
- to sit with different pupil supervisors during their time with us
- to share the daily professional life of their pupil supervisor
- to produce pleadings, opinions and skeleton arguments in their pupil supervisor's cases
- to attend conferences with their pupil supervisor, the solicitor and the lay client
- to attend Court with their pupil supervisor and other members of Chambers
- to receive regular feedback on their work from their pupil supervisor
- to have their workload monitored by their pupil supervisor
- to have an opportunity to work with a variety of junior tenants and silks
- to get to know our clerks and begin to learn what skills and approaches will assist in building a successful practice
- to have an opportunity to contribute to life in chambers

Applications will be treated in confidence and should include the following information:

- A detailed CV which sets out what you have seen and done during your pupillage
- A selection of anonymised pleadings, skeleton arguments and opinions that you have done during pupillage
- Confirmation of who you have sat with over the last 9-10 months

Please send your application and arrange for at least three of your supervisors (if possible) to send a reference to pupillage@wilberforce.co.uk.

The deadline for applications is 17:00 on Wednesday 26th July. We will aim to revert to applicants with any invitation to an interview by close of business the following day.

Wilberforce Chambers is an equal opportunities employer. We are committed to promoting and achieving equality and diversity in Chambers, so we want to receive applications from anyone who has the qualities and skills we are looking for, no matter what university they have attended, no matter what age, race, gender or sexual orientation.
