Description and how to apply
New Square Chambers invites applications for probationary tenancy from candidates who have completed a chancery and/or commercial pupillage, or who can demonstrate significant experience of and interest in chancery and/or commercial work. A probationary tenant is sought due to a significant surplus of junior work across Chambers' primary practice areas. New Square Chambers is "an exceptional set" with recognised expertise in trusts and estates, commercial litigation, civil fraud, company, insolvency and property. New Square Chambers also has a strong offshore presence. A probationary tenant can expect work in some, if not all, of Chambers' practice areas. If you wish to develop a practice across one or more of our core areas, thrive on courtroom advocacy, wish to develop a mixed led and un-led practice and have the drive to develop a successful practice New Square may be the perfect fit for you. Whilst it is anticipated that our probationary tenant will generate sufficient income from their own work, any offer of probationary tenancy is supported by guaranteed minimum earnings of £50,000 subject to terms and conditions.

The probationary tenant will be supported by a mentor, in addition to a collegiate membership and excellent staff. There will be opportunities to work with members of chambers across years of call and across practice areas to further develop your skills. Probationary Tenants will be expected to engage themselves in their own work both in court and on paper.

Applications for probationary tenancy should be made by sending the following documents in Word or PDF format by email to pupillage@newsquarechambers.co.uk with the subject "Probationary Tenancy Application":

- Covering Letter;
- CV;
- An example of written work (e.g. an advice or skeleton argument, solely authored by the candidate), anonymised as appropriate; and
- Two references (ideally including one reference from the Chambers at which the candidate has completed pupillage).

Interviews will take place, and any offers will be made on a rolling basis and subject to the agreement of terms.

Applications from female, Black, ethnic minority, disabled and/or socially mobile candidates are particularly encouraged.

Fairness, and a commitment to equality, diversity and inclusion is at the heart of New Square Chambers' recruitment and selection processes. No applicant for any role or position within Chambers will be discriminated against on the basis of their race, colour, ethnic or national origin, nationality, citizenship, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, age, religion or political persuasion. Further information, and New Square Chambers' policies are available here: <https://www.newsquarechambers.co.uk/about/equality-diversity/>. Chambers also operates a policy of fair access to work for all tenants and pupils.

Please inform us as soon as possible, by calling James Saunders on +44 (0)20 419 8000 or by email to pupillage@newsquarechambers.co.uk, if you require a reasonable adjustment to the assessment and/or interview process.
