Previous experience of tax law is helpful but not necessary. Applicants should send a letter of application plus CV and one piece of recent written work to Tom Rook at tom.rook@11newsquare.com.

Chambers is committed to providing equality of opportunity without discrimination and offers of mini-pupillage, pupillage and tenancy are made strictly on merit, by reference to relevant objective criteria. Those criteria include intellectual ability, legal analysis, research and communication skills, and whether the candidate has the determination to become a successful tax barrister. Chambers will only recruit, as pupils or tenants, individuals that are considered to have the potential to excel at the tax bar. Chambers actively encourages all applicants irrespective of age, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability or other personal characteristics not bearing upon the ability to practise at the bar.
