Description and how to apply
Nexus Chambers (Chambers of Michael Mansfield KC) We are a common law set that offers probationary tenancy, with oversight, in crime, family, inquest, regulatory and general civil law. Applicants should have strong academic qualifications and professional references. Previous experience in criminal practice is mandatory as the predominate work will be undertaking Chambers' heavy workload in the criminal courts. Experience in other practice areas, in particular the family courts, is of advantage but is not a prerequisite. The successful applicant will be expected to commence practice immediately and our intention is for any successful probationary tenant to be invited to apply for full tenancy. Probationary tenants will not be required to pay either chambers' rent or any percentage on their earnings during the currency of the probationary tenancy. Applications should be sent to steven.hayden@nexuschambers.com [head of pupillage] Please provide a CV and cover letter, together with full details of the work you have undertaken during your career to date. Applicants are expected to provide two legally qualified referees prior to any offer of the position. It is preferable that at least one of the referees is a previous Pupil Supervisor. All applications will be treated in the strictest confidence
