Description and how to apply

Gatehouse Chambers has vacancies for up to three third six probationary tenancy barristers (previously referred to as 'third six pupils').

Candidates should be able to demonstrate a desire to build a practice in at least one of the following key areas: property, commercial, personal injury and/or clinical negligence, construction, insolvency or private client. The scope of work offered during the probationary tenancy may include areas outside the area of specific interest.

Gatehouse Chambers is a progressive chambers with a strong reputation across our specialist areas. Our exceptional facilities and practice management support enable our probationary tenants to develop rewarding and successful careers. We are recruiting for up to three third sixes to join one of our specialist teams.

The successful applicants will have strong analytical and drafting ability and be able to demonstrate excellent advocacy skills. In addition, they will show commitment to their chosen area/s of specialism and be keen to work as part of the relevant specialist team/s.

Third six probationary tenancy barristers will be assessed and considered for membership of chambers at the end of six months.

Guaranteed earnings are £35,000 for third six probationary tenancy barristers within the six-months of the probationary tenancy.

Procedure for application: Please email thirdsix@gatehouselaw.co.uk for a copy of our application form, and on return of the form, you will be sent the link to our equal opportunities and diversity on-line survey. CVs will not be considered.

Application Period: The application period is now open. Applicants can request the application form up until 12:00, noon on Friday 28 June 2024. Completed application forms should be submitted by midnight on Sunday 30 June 2024.

Interviews: we will aim to contact all candidates by 10 July 2024 to confirm whether they are to be interviewed. First round interviews will take between 15 - 19 July 2024 and second round interviews will take place between 29 July - 2 August 2024 (or as soon as possible thereafter). Interviews will take place in person at Gatehouse Chambers.

Gatehouse Chambers is an equal opportunities employer and we particularly encourage applications from people who are underrepresented in the legal profession <https://gatehouselaw.co.uk/equality-diversity-inclusion/>

Candidates (including those with 'invisible' disabilities) will be offered reasonable adjustment and we welcome application from neurodiverse and disabled candidates.
