

The Bar Council

Probationary Tenancies Vacancy (Health Team)

Chambers Information
Name of chambers	Outer Temple Chambers
Address of chambers	The Outer Temple 222 Strand London WC2R 1BA
Chambers email	pupillage@outertemple.com
Chambers website address	www.outertemple.com

Vacancy Information
Number of probationary tenancies	1
Level of guaranteed earnings	£35,000 (if an early decision is taken then pro rata this amount)
Closing date of vacancy	Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis
Start date	Autumn 2024

Description and how to apply
An exciting opportunity has arisen for an ambitious probationary tenant to join the Health Team at Outer Temple Chambers with view to tenancy. Outer Temple Chambers is an established leading set of chambers providing bespoke legal services for solicitors, in-house counsel, professional clients and private individuals. Our success is built on sound legal advice and effective problem solving, focused wholly on the individual needs of our clients. Fostered by an open and diverse culture that makes us easy to work with, we have barristers spanning all levels of expertise. Many are highly respected leaders in their respective fields, and Chambers was voted Personal Injury Set of the Year by Chambers UK Bar Awards 2023 and is nominated for the same award in the current contest. Probationary tenancy Applications are invited from pupils who are completing or have completed a 12-month pupillage in a set which has provided them with experience in one or more of the areas of work covered by our Health Department Team (Clinical Negligence, Personal Injury, Product Liability, Court of Protection, Travel Law) and wish to join our collaborative, dynamic and impressive legal team, providing exceptional legal services in the UK and internationally. Applicants who succeed in becoming tenants of Chambers will be expected to develop their practices in the Health Department and will be clerked by the Health Department clerking team.

The successful applicant can expect:

- a. to have one or more supervisors and a mentor;
- b. to produce written work such as statements of case and opinions in their supervisors' matters;
- c. to produce written work for a range of members of Chambers (with work-load monitored by supervisors);
- d. to produce work for a range of members of Chambers (with work-load monitored by supervisors);
- e. to attend conferences with their supervisor;
- f. to attend court with their supervisor and other members of chambers;
- g. to participate in advocacy exercises;
- h. to receive ongoing feedback from supervisors and members;
- i. to be instructed in their own matters;
- j. access to Chambers' social events, and invitations to lectures and seminars.

We have a strong track record of pupils and probationary tenants being taken on as full tenants, and our recruitment process has this as a firm objective.

How to apply

For a confidential discussion, please feel free to contact Steve Graham (telephone 0207 353 6381 or email: steve.graham@outertemple.com) or our Head of Pupillage, Saul Margo (saul.margo@outertemple.com).

In order to apply, please can you email to pupillage@outertemple.com:

- your full CV;
- completed application form;
- at least two samples of recent written legal work (skeletons/pleadings/advice etc), suitably redacted/anonymised as necessary. A maximum of four samples can be submitted.

Outer Temple Chambers is an equal opportunities employer and is committed to diversity amongst its staff, members and pupils. We are also a Disability Confident Employer. We will consider any reasonable adjustments needed to ensure that you can participate in our selection process.

Posted: