Description and how to apply
Chambers of John Gardiner KC (11 New Square) is a leading set of barristers' chambers specialising exclusively in tax law. Members of Chambers advise and act in relation to all aspects of tax law, and in all Courts and tax tribunals in the UK, as well as in several other jurisdictions. Applicants are invited for probationary tenancies, formerly known as third six month pupillages, at 11 New Square. Chambers are seeking individuals who have completed pupillage elsewhere (within the last 12 months) who are able to demonstrate a commitment to tax law, meet the highest academic standards, and have outstanding communications skills. Previous experience of tax law is helpful but not necessary. Applicants should send a letter of application, plus CV and one piece of recent written work, to Tom Rook at tom.rook@11newsquare.com.

Chambers is committed to providing equality of opportunity without discrimination and offers of mini-pupillage, pupillage and tenancy are made strictly on merit, by reference to relevant objective criteria. Those criteria include:

- intellectual ability
- legal analysis
- research and communication skills
- whether the candidate has the determination to become a successful tax barrister

Chambers will only recruit, as pupils or tenants, individuals that are considered to have the potential to excel at the tax bar. Chambers actively encourages all applicants irrespective of age, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability or other personal characteristics not bearing upon the ability to practise at the Bar.
