

Time	Session	In Partnership With
11:00 - 15:00	Application Clinic Spend ten minutes of one-on-one time with a practising barrister, who will provide expert and impartial advice on your pupillage application, legal CV or interview technique.
11:00 - 11:45 panel session  11:45 - 13:30 drop in	Meet the Young Bar This informal drop-in session presents an opportunity to put your burning questions to a team of young criminal, family and civil law barristers. Barristers who have recently secured or completed pupillage are arguably best placed to advise on the process; attendees are encouraged to bring and seek feedback on their CVs and pupillage applications.	The Young Barristers' Committee
11:00 - 12:00  13:15 - 14:15	Life at the Chancery and Commercial Bar Junior and senior barristers, from leading chancery and commercial sets, will present on their working lives, the skills required to succeed in their areas, and key developments in those areas. This targeted session is suited to students who are committed to practising in chancery and/or commercial law, particularly BPTC students.	The Chancery Bar Association            The Commercial Bar Association            The Technology and Construction Bar Association
11:00 - 11:45  13:00 - 13:45	Life as a Civil Law Barrister Civil law barristers, including public law and human rights barristers, will present on their working lives and key developments in their area(s). This targeted session is suited to students who are committed to practising civil law.	The Employment Law Bar Association            The Technology and Construction Bar Association

11:00 - 11:45	Life at the Criminal Bar Junior and senior barristers, from leading criminal sets, will present on their working lives, the skills required to succeed at the criminal Bar, and key developments in the area. This targeted session is suited to students who are committed to practising criminal law, particularly BPTC students or graduates.	The Criminal Bar Association
11:00 - 11:45 14:00 - 14:45	Life at the Family Law Bar Junior and senior barristers, from leading family law sets, will present on their working lives, the skills required to succeed as a family barrister, and key developments in the area. This targeted session is suited to students who are committed to practising in family law, particularly BPTC students or graduates.	The Family Law Bar Association
11:45 - 12:15 12:45 - 13:15	BSB: Future Bar Training The BSB invites you to attend one of its two sessions to find out what the new Bar training rules, launched this year, will mean for pupillage. If you're an aspiring barrister, this isn't to be missed.	Bar Standards Board
13:30 - 15:00	Building your CV This informal drop-in session presents an opportunity to speak to various organisations who can offer advice and information about ways to build your CV.
12:15 - 13:00 14:15 - 15:00	Exploring Different Practice Areas Barristers from leading criminal, family, commercial, public and common law sets will provide insight into their working lives. This general session is suited to undergraduate students seeking information on the Bar before committing to the BPTC or pupillage applications.
12:00 - 12:45 14:15 - 15:00	Funding and Support from the Inns of Court Representatives from each of the Inns of Court will outline the opportunities and forms of support that they offer to aspiring barristers, particularly during the BPTC.	The Inns of Court
12:00 - 12:45 14:30 - 15:15	How to Get Pupillage – Insider Tips on Making a Successful Application.

12:00 - 12:45	I am the Bar Come and meet our Social Mobility Advocates. They are barristers who have volunteered to tell their stories of coming to the Bar from 'non-traditional' backgrounds, to demonstrate that social mobility at the Bar is an important and realistic goal, and to help inspire and advise the next generation of barristers.
13:00 - 13:45	Career Changers Barristers will share their experience of joining the Bar at a later stage and provide insight into the benefits and challenges of doing so. This targeted session is suited to those who are, or are considering, switching to the Bar from other careers; and those who are considering pursuing another career before joining the Bar.
13:15 - 14:00	Life at the Employed Bar Employed barristers, from a range of organisations and practice areas, will present on their working lives and how they compare or contrast to life at the self-employed Bar. This session is suited to students who want to learn more about the employed Bar as a career route, and to students who are committed to joining the employed Bar.	The Employed Barristers' Committee
13:30 - 14:15	Applicants with a Disability Barristers with experience of a range of disabilities will share their thoughts on the pupillage recruitment process and life at the Bar, including challenges, existing forms of support, and areas requiring improvement.	