Description and how to apply
Maidstone Chambers is looking to recruit a third-six pupil, with a view to tenancy, in order to service an increasing workload in civil and criminal matters. We are a mixed common law chambers based in Maidstone, Kent and practise predominantly in Kent, Sussex and London. Chambers core practice areas are Crime (Prosecution and Defence), Civil (Landlord and Tenant, Trusts of Land, Commercial), Family and Military Law. Although based in the County Town of Kent, a stone's throw from the busy Combined Court Centre, members live across Kent and Sussex. Chambers offers a friendly and relaxed professional environment and the opportunity to have a true work/life balance. As a circuit practitioner you will be able to enjoy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A lower cost of living</li> <li>• Less travel (seldom more than 60 minutes from Chambers)</li> <li>• Easy access to both London and the Coast</li> </ul>

Successful candidates will have experience of criminal work and at least one of Chambers core practice areas and, will be willing to undertake work across all practice areas. Chambers only recruits with a view to tenancy and strongly encourages Third Six Pupils to apply for tenancy. In order to ensure that Third Six pupils have every opportunity to develop into tenants, we offer mentoring and career development to help pupils develop the practice they want when junior tenants. A designated mentor in each practice area will be assigned to ensure that you have the chance to continue to learn and develop. You will also have regular meetings with our clerks to help ensure your practice is heading in the direction you want it to.

During third six, pupils can expect to be in court nearly every day across the Magistrates', Crown and County Courts.
