Description and how to apply
Due to an expanding client base and an increase in workload, Five Paper welcomes applications for Third Six pupillage from those with an interest and experience in Social Housing, Landlord & Tenant and Property. The former is an area where Chambers is ranked in both Legal 500 and Chambers & Partners. The successful candidate should expect a busy practice, regularly appearing in the County Court and Property Tribunal, in addition to providing written advice/pleadings from inception. There may also be the opportunity to experience work in our wider practice areas, which can be found on our website. The successful applicant will be assigned a mentor who will support them during their Third Six pupillage. After successful completion of their Third Six, our expectation is that the candidate will be offered the opportunity to apply for tenancy. Five Paper is a friendly, modern, forward thinking set with a clerking team, lauded in both directories, committed to providing a platform for development in a friendly and positive atmosphere. We are committed to equality and diversity, for further information please click here. To apply, please send a covering letter and CV to clerks@fivepaper.com. The covering letter should address current practice and ambitions for the future. Applications will be treated in confidence and marked against our Third Six Recruitment Policy.
