Description and how to apply
New Street Chambers is a busy family and civil set which has been based in the heart of Leicester's legal quarter for almost a century. There is a vacancy for a third six pupil seeking a pupillage of six months duration with the opportunity to apply for a full tenancy during or at the conclusion of the pupillage. The work that can be expected will encompass all aspects of family and children together with common law civil litigation, the emphasis being on advocacy. A member of Chambers will be assigned to the third six pupil as a pupillage mentor. This third six months pupillage is unfunded and the successful candidate will be expected to generate their own income, and will have ample opportunity to do this. Applications should be made in writing including a full cv to Sally Barnett, Head of Chambers, New Street Chambers, 2 New Street, Leicester, LE1 5NA marking the envelope "Third Six" or by e-mail to sb.newstreet@hotmail.co.uk
