Description and how to apply

Grow with St Philips – Probationary Tenancies across all specialisms

At St Philips Chambers, we are synonymous with attracting and nurturing some of the finest talent at the Bar and due to the high volume of work chambers is looking to offer probationary tenancies to commence immediately across all our specialist areas:

- Business and Property
- Crime
- Employment
- Family
- Personal Injury and Clinical Negligence
- Regulatory

Chambers invites applications from ambitious and highly motivated individuals who are able to demonstrate outstanding intellectual ability typically evidenced by an excellent academic record, a sound knowledge of legal principles, or where appropriate a real potential to develop such knowledge and understanding. The ability to absorb and analyse a set of facts to identify the relevant factual and legal issues. The ability to present a persuasive argument either on paper or orally in a calm engaging and persuasive manner. To work efficiently as part of a team and engage and impress other lawyers and clients.

An offer of a probationary tenancy would be with a realistic expectation of a tenancy being offered thereafter. While no earnings are guaranteed, you can expect to be very busy.

The successful applicant/s will be able to demonstrate that they have developed their professional skills during their initial period of pupillage. They will have strong analytical skills, sound drafting ability, and excellent advocacy skills, both oral and written. They will be able to demonstrate a real commitment to their chosen areas of specialism.

We anticipate that successful applicants will have a busy diary. Applicants for tenancy will be considered after a 6-month period.

Chambers is committed to providing our clients with high quality, specialist legal services through Barristers with the highest reputation for advocacy, knowledge and professional standards and we are looking for candidates who will uphold these core values.

Applications should be made with a covering letter reference to "Probationary Tenancy Application" and sent to Juliette Print via email- pupillage@st-philips.com containing:

1. your CV
2. two examples of written work
3. two references, these can be from solicitors, and preferably one from a previous Pupil Supervisor.

All applications will be treated in the strictest confidence.

Chambers operates an equal opportunities policy and adheres to the Equality and Diversity Code for the Bar.
