5 Essex Court is a civil law set that specialises in public and administrative law, human rights, public inquiries, information law, employment, regulatory law, personal injury and healthcare. It is widely acknowledged to be one of the leading sets for inquests, public inquiries and police law.

Chambers' work is exciting and often high profile with members at all levels involved in the majority of significant cases, public inquiries and inquests involving the police. In the last few years, members of chambers – Including pupils – have been, or are, involved in public inquiries such as the Grenfell Tower Inquiry, the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse, the Undercover Policing Inquiry, the Infected Blood Inquiry and the Manchester Arena Bombing Inquiry. Members of chambers also regularly appear in legal challenges and appeals touching on matters of significant public interest, including most recently: R (Bridges) v Chief Constable of South Wales Police (lawfulness of automatic face recognition technology); R (Maughan) v HM Senior Coroner for Oxfordshire (standard of proof applied at inquests) and Robinson v Chief Constable of West Yorkshire (duty of care). Members of chambers have been instructed in recent inquests including those relating to the deaths of Dawn Sturgess and Caroline Flack and the Fishmongers' Hall and London Bridge terrorist attacks.

5 Essex Court prides itself on providing pupils and junior tenants with a supportive, friendly and constructive environment in which to learn and begin their practices.

We seek to make our application process as transparent and fair as possible. All those who are involved in the selection process have undergone training in equality and diversity and fair selection.
